Question 2

Imagine you are Gerry. When you get home, you tell your older brother about your lesson with Kralefsky. You should tell your brother:

- what your impressions of Kralefsky are
 - what you found amazing about the attic
 - what you think your future lessons with Kralefsky will be like.

Write the account of the conversation between Gerry and his brother.

Begin your account: "Well, it looks as if Mom's found another interesting character to teach me".

You should base your ideas on what you have read in the passage, but do not copy from it.

You should write between 1 and 1½ sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting.

Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 10 marks for the quality of your writing.
