SECTION A: CORE CONTENT

Answer any two questions from this Section.

- 1 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Mazzini's main weakness was that his ideas were too intellectual for most people to grasp, and certainly too radical for middle-class reformers. He was often not in Italy and became out of touch with the situation.

From a British history book published in 2006.

- (a) What was the 'Young Italy' movement? [5]
- (b) Why were Mazzini's attempts to bring unification to Italy unsuccessful? [7]
- (c) How far was Garibaldi responsible for the unification of Italy? Explain your answer. [8]

- 2 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Although slavery came to an end with the Civil War, this was not the issue at stake when the war began, even though abolitionists worked hard to persuade Congress to abolish slavery, as in every other civilised nation.

In the face of this growing opposition to slavery, the southern politicians knew it was doubly important to ensure that the balance between slave and free states was maintained.

From a British history book published in 1985.

- (a) What was the Missouri Compromise? [5]
- (b) Why was a new compromise introduced in 1850? [7]
- (c) How far did slavery cause the Civil War? Explain your answer. [8]

3 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

In 1853 Commodore Perry arrived off the coast of Japan with four American warships. Until then Japan had been almost totally isolated from the rest of the world. America forced trading concessions from the Shogun.

A British historian writing in 2003.

- (a) Describe the powers of the Shogun in Japan before 1867. [5]
- (b) Why did America send Commodore Perry to Japan? [7]
- (c) 'Conflict in 1894–5 was more important than conflict in 1904–5 in strengthening Japan's claim to be a Great Power.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

4 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

German: I wonder what history will make of all this?

- (c) 'Germany was responsible for the outbreak of war in 1914.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

5 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

Sometimes people call me an idealist. Well, that is the way I know I am an American. America is the only idealist nation in the world.

President Wilson speaking in 1918.

- (a) What did President Wilson want to achieve from the peace settlement at the end of the First World War? [5]
- (b) Why did France want a harsh settlement to be imposed on Germany in 1919? [7]
- (c) 'By 1923 it was clear that the Treaty of Versailles was the least effective of the peace treaties of 1919–20.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

6 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

The League Covenant can apparently be ignored at will. Japan has ignored it by invading Manchuria; the nations represented on the League Council have ignored it by refusing to insist on the removal of Japanese troops.

From an English newspaper published in December 1931.

- (a) What were the roles of (i) the Council and (ii) the Refugees Commission in the League of Nations? [5]
- (b) Why was leadership of the League weak from the start? [7]
- (c) 'The League of Nations was a success.' How far do you agree with this statement? Explain your answer. [8]

7 Read the extract, and then answer the questions which follow.

I have been informed by Chairman Khrushchev that all the Soviet nuclear weapons in Cuba will be withdrawn within 30 days. I have this afternoon instructed the Secretary of Defence to lift our naval quarantine. It is our hope that the Cuban people shall someday be truly free.

President Kennedy announcing the end of the Cuban Crisis.

- (a) Describe the US reaction to the Cuban Revolution up to the end of April 1961. [5]
- (b) Why was the USA concerned about Castro declaring Cuba a Communist state in December 1961? [7]
