Josef sat down on the bank. When he looked into the water, he noticed a large fish. "Next time I'll bring my new fishing rod", he thought. He threw a stone into the water and the fish disappeared.

It was warm in the sun. The boy lay down and shut his eyes. He soon fell asleep. Two hours later dark clouds were in the sky. He stood up, in order to go home.

He heard the loud voice of his father. "Josef, where are you? Come quickly! The whole family is waiting for you". At once Josef began to run as quickly as possible.

His mother was putting clothes into a large bag and his little sister, who was sitting beside her, was crying: "I want my dolls". "It is better to have warm clothes", came the reply.

"What is the matter?" asked Josef. "We must leave at once", explained his father. "We only have time to take the most important things". "But where are we going?" Josef wanted to know. His father looked sad. "I don't exactly know", he said, "but it is too dangerous to stay here".
