Cabin nannies show Gulf in class

YOU KNOW what it's like - you try to sleep on a flight and suddenly you're surrounded by cabin crew keeping you awake.

This youngster is receiving attention from the latest bunch of Gulf Air Sky Nannys. The nannies first took to the air in November and feature on all the airline's flights from Heathrow.

A new group of 15 flight attendants were attending a three-day training session at the renowned Norland College in Bath.

At the end of it, the crew must demonstrate an understanding of how to meet the needs of babies and young children. Surely putting them with the VIPs in first class for a few hours is enough?

The wonder of the Red Sea gypt has been attracting visitors for centuries and its combination of spectacular sightseeing, modern comforts and year-round sunshine ensures that its popularity continues. It is a land of huge contrasts where ancient and modern life exist side by side and the new and rapidly developing Red Sea resorts are prime examples.

SHARM EL SHEIKH

Located at the tip of the Sinai peninsular, this growing holiday resort is perfect for sun-worshippers and the discerning holidaymaker. Situated directly on the shores of the Red Sea the beaches are white sand, backed by mountainous desert. For water sports and diving enthusiasts, the warm water with its 20 °C plus temperature and crystal clear visibility is ideal. The exotic coral leads to its reputation of being one of the best diving sites in the world. Outside the resort there are plenty of excursions to choose from including Mount Sinai, the Coloured Canyon, St Catherine's Monastery and Jeep/Camel Safaris. The most popular resort is Naama Bay which has a wide selection of bars and restaurants, including the Hard Rock Café as well as a good range of top quality hotels. With the combination of year round tropical sun, modern, high quality hotels, fascinating excursions and a warm welcome, Sharm El Sheikh is an ideal holiday destination within easy reach of the UK offering quality holidays at unbelievable prices. Ideal for couples, families, honeymooners and just about everyone! Transfer time from the airport is approximately 45 minutes.

ESSENTIAL INFORMATION

FLYING TIME: 5 hours and 30 minutes

TIME: GMT +2 hours

VISA REQUIRED: UK passport holders can obtain tourist visas on arrival at the airport. VACCINATIONS: Hepatitis A, Polio, Tetanus, Typhoid, Malaria (for some parts of the country only), TB (for children only).

TOURIST OFFICE: 020 7493 5283

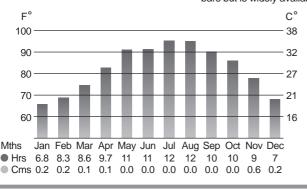

CURRENCY: The Egyptian Pound, currently at $\pounds 1 = 11$ Egyptian Pounds. US travellers cheques are preferred although UK travellers cheques are also accepted. Please note many hotels do not accept Egyptian pounds for payment of hotel bills - we advise that you take US dollars or a credit card with you.

LANGUAGE: Arabic. English and French are also spoken.

SHOPPING: Barter in the souks and find bargains in leatherware, jewellery, rugs and perfume.

TIPPING: Tipping is a way of life in Egypt and is expected by everyone who offers a service.

FOOD & DRINK: Egypt's location close to both the Mediterranean and Arabia gave rise to its blend of Middle Eastern and southern Mediterranean cuisine. Popular dishes include kebabs and hummus. As Egypt is a Muslim country, alcohol is not available in bars but is widely available in hotels and restaurants.

Please note Ramadan will be celebrated between 25 October and 23 November.

During this time Muslims are forbidden food, drinks and cigarettes during daylight hours and visitors must refrain from consuming them in public. The actual date will depend on the sighting of the crescent moon that marks the beginning of the Islamic month.

Step back into the past in this charming medieval city, one of the best preserved in Europe. Appreciate its delights from a trip on the tree-lined canals, crossed by humpbacked bridges, or from the comfort of a horse drawn carriage passing through cobbled streets and alleys lined with gabled houses. There are bars, cafés and restaurants galore opening onto delightful squares in true cosmopolitan fashion - and for the more quiet moments we can recommend the peaceful Beguinage and the Lake of Love. A truly enchanting city, with a wonderfully medieval heart.
