Part 3: Translation

Translate the following passage into Urdu.

Khalid found the cocoon of a butterfly. Quite soon afterwards he saw a small opening begin to appear. He sat and watched the butterfly for several hours as it struggled to force its body through the little hole. But then the butterfly stopped and it seemed as if it couldn't go any further. So Khalid decided to help the butterfly. He took a pair of scissors and cut off the remaining bit of the cocoon. The butterfly then emerged easily but it had a swollen body.

Khalid continued to watch the butterfly because he expected that, at any moment, its wings would expand to support its body. But, in fact, nothing more happened. The butterfly spent the rest of its life crawling around and could not fly.

Khalid in his kindness and haste had not understood that the struggle required for the butterfly to get through the tiny opening was essential. It was God's way of forcing blood from the body of the butterfly into its wings and enabling it to fly. Sometimes the struggles that we face in our life allow us to grow.
