May/June 2012

1 hour 30 minutes

Additional Materials: Answer Booklet/Paper

READ THESE INSTRUCTIONS FIRST

If you have been given an Answer Booklet, follow the instructions on the front cover of the Booklet.

Write your Centre number, candidate number and name on all the work you hand in.

Write in dark blue or black pen.

Do not use staples, paper clips, highlighters, glue or correction fluid.

There are three sections in this paper: Section A, Section B and Section C. Choose two of these sections and answer one question from each of the sections you have chosen.

You may use a soft pencil for any diagrams, graphs or rough working.

At the end of the examination, fasten all your work securely together.

The number of marks is given in brackets [] at the end of each question or part question.

This document consists of 2 printed pages.

Answer two questions, each from a different section.

Section A: The Sociological Perspective

- 1 "Functionalist theorists have exaggerated the amount of consensus in society." Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 2 Assess the realist theory that there are more similarities than differences between sociology and the natural sciences. [25]

Section B: Sociological Methods

- 3 "Official statistics provide a distorted picture of social reality. For this reason, they have little value in sociological research." Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 4 "Much can go wrong when carrying out covert participant observation. The risks with this research method outweigh the rewards." Explain and assess this claim. [25]

Section C: Social Differentiation and Stratification

- 5 "Post-modernist writers have exposed the weaknesses in traditional sociological theories of class." Explain and assess this view. [25]
- 6 "In modern industrial societies, the poor are trapped in poverty by their dependence on welfare benefits." Explain and assess this view. [25]
