Translate the following passage into Arabic:

When I woke up this morning I was feeling restless and tired. Perhaps this was due to the dream I had last night, which spoiled my sleep. Today, in particular, it was important for me to be refreshed.

My nephew, only two years younger than me, would be visiting me. This was a special occasion because we had not seen each other for six years. Words cannot express the excitement I felt. Childhood memories from when we studied together were still clear in my mind. After our education was over, we had planned to start a business together, but fate separated us. He travelled abroad to fulfil his goal of becoming a famous scientist.

I could hear the sound of pans downstairs as my daughter prepared the dinner, which had been designed to include my nephew's favourite sweets. It was my responsibility to make the house look clean and welcoming.

We must not waste a single moment together. I had arranged for us to meet a long list of mutual friends.

As soon as I had got dressed, I heard the doorbell. I rushed to greet him and ran outside, only to be met by the postman.
