MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2015 series

9787 CLASSICAL GREEK

9787/03

Paper 3 (Unseen Translation), maximum raw mark 100

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2015 series for most Cambridge IGCSE®, Cambridge International A and AS Level components and some Cambridge O Level components.

® IGCSE is the registered trademark of Cambridge International Examinations.

Total for Prose Unseen Translation = 135 marks ÷ 3 = 45

Add a maximum of 5 marks to the total out of 50 for quality of English in line with the marking grid below.

If there is no mark over a word, it is ignored. In general, a word must be translated wholly correctly (e.g. as object, as plural), and in the correct syntactic relation to other words, to gain the mark. Marks in brackets are for words not there in the Greek, but which need to be supplied in translation.

Prose Unseen Translation: Style mark descriptors

- 5   Comprehensively fluent and idiomatic.
- 4   Judicious recasting of the Classical Greek with good choice of vocabulary in accordance with English idiom and register.
- 3   Some attempt to move beyond the literal to an idiomatic rendering of the text through use of a range of grammatical structures.
- 2   Some evidence of recognition of use of idiom.
- 1   Very literal translation with only occasional attempt to capture appropriate idiom.
- 0   Very literal translation with no attempt to capture appropriate idiom.

[Total: 50]
